SONG OF THE DRIFTER

I've cut me load and that's me song, it's time I hit the track
I've been round here for far too long and now I'm headin' back
I'm splittin' from this worn out scene, I'm packin' up me gear
I'm takin' off for pastures green, I'm snatchin' it from here.

I've heard the things they said to me, I've bogged meself in stuff
I've took responsibility and now I've had enough
So good luck, mate, I'm movin' on, I'll leave the place to you
And if they ask you where I've gone, just tell them I shot through.

And if we meet some other place, no stranger will you be
I'll remember name and face, you've all been good to me
I'll greet you like a brother, I'll make you laugh somehow
And then one day I'll drift away just like I'm doin' now.
